

Mariposa Linens™

Many companies are offering ‘comparable’ spun poly napkin on the market today. You must have questions about which is the best, or rather, which is the best for you. Questions like: Which napkin fades less? Which napkin loses its’ shape after washing? Will all reds be my red? If I install one napkin, can I switch companies?

Well, we’ve done the work for you. Using independent labs we tested Mariposa Linen, Milliken, and Pinnacle to understand more about how solid spun poly napkins wear over time. We’re the best in some categories, but not all. You must choose the values that work for your needs. If you’re still unsure after reading this chart, give us a call at (215) 482-6100, we’d be happy to help you out.
